Part III Primary Exempt Purpose & Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Pennsylvania Partnerships for Children is a strong, effective, and trusted voice for improving the health, education, and well being of the Commonwealth's children. PPC's core values are to be an independent, nonpartisan, prevention-focused, research based child advocacy organization. Its prevention-based agenda concentrates on five issues that yield a strong return on investments for our children: early childhood education, family supports, health coverage, after-school programs and youth development, and quality basic education.

PPC's strategies to accomplish its goal are

- Conducting research and analysis to develop credible, sound information and insight to drive public policy.
- Using an array of communication strategies to increase the awareness of key constituencies.
- Mobilize individuals and organizations to speak out for the interests of Pennsylvania's children
- Representing the interests of Pennsylvania's children in Harrisburg and Washington through government relations.

Program Service Accomplishments

- Increased funding for child care subsidy and improvements in child care quality. The funding increase secured last year will allow the state to continue to expand service to an additional 20,000 children bringing the subsidy program enrollment to 221,000. The quality improvements will allow for the expansion of voluntary participation in the state's quality improvement system to serve nearly 175,000 children.

- Increased funding for Head Start and provided for additional services to approximately 1000 more children.

- Expanded the state's high school-college enrollment program that will enable high school students to take over 9,000 college courses this academic year.

- Expansion of the state's education accountability block grant which greatly expanded access to full-day kindergarten in Pennsylvania to the now highest level in our state's history – 55% of kindergarteners.

- Enacted a universal children's health insurance statute that will expand coverage to all 283,000 uninsured children in Pennsylvania.

- Provided public education materials to interested Pennsylvanians, the media and policymakers on key aspects of child well-being through:
    - A special report on school readiness - 1,500 copies distributed, and posted on the PPC Web site, and statewide media release.
    - A special report on preparing youth for employment in the 21st century - 1,500 copies distributed, and posted on the PPC Web site, and statewide media release.
    - Semi-annual organizational newsletter mailed to 10,000 people and posted online, introducing readers to the people and programs exemplifying the best in child prevention-focused policies and practices.
    - Monthly update on progress in children's policymaking, distributed to more than 1,500 people and posted online, augmented by regularly e-mailed policy updates at critical times in the policymaking process.
    - Gave public presentations on key children's issues, including appearances in such high-level venues as legislative hearings, state board of education, gubernatorial commissions, conferences and community forums.
