Form 990, Part III:
Primary Exempt Purpose & Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Pennsylvania Partnerships for Children is a strong, effective, and trusted voice for improving the health, education, and well being of the children and youth in Pennsylvania. PPC's core values are to be an independent, non-partisan, research based child advocacy organization. Its agenda concentrates on assuring that:

- All children enter school ready to learn.
- All children have access to health care that assures their healthy development.
- All children and youth are raised in loving and knowledgeable families free from abuse and neglect.
- All children have access to effective after-school and youth development programs.
- All children have access to high-quality public education through post-secondary completion.

PPC's strategies to accomplish its goal are:

- Conduct research and analysis to develop credible information to drive public policy.
- Use an array of communication strategies to increase the awareness of key constituencies.
- Mobilize individuals and organizations to speak out for the interests of Pennsylvania's children.
- Representing the interests of Pennsylvania's children in Harrisburg and Washington through government relations.

2008 Program Service Accomplishments

- Enacted a statute establishing a new school funding formula designed to assure that 2 million Pennsylvania school children receive an adequate and equitable public education.

- Expanded the Pre-K Counts program for high-quality pre-K for 3 and 4-year olds at risk of education failure. Funding secured for the program is allowing the state to offer high quality pre-K to 11,800 children through a mixed delivery system.

- Increased funding for child care subsidy and improvements in child care quality. The funding increase secured last year will bring the monthly enrollment in the subsidy program to over 137,000. The quality improvements will allow for the expansion of voluntary participation in the state's quality improvement system to serve approximately 171,000 children.

- Provided public education materials to interested Pennsylvanians, the media and policymakers on key aspects of child well-being through:
  - A special report on school readiness – "Making Good Use of Public Funds, 2008" which was released statewide to the media. Approximately 1,000 copies were distributed and a PDF file was posted on the PPC web site.
  - A special report on reaching high school dropouts – "Dropping Back In: Re-Engaging Out of School Youth." Approximately 2,000 copies were distributed and a PDF file was posted on the PPC web site. The report was used as a background tool for participants in a statewide drop-out prevention summit.
  - A special report on federal restrictions to SCHIP was created and shared with relevant policymakers and housed online.
  - Semi-annual organizational newsletter mailed to 12,000 people and posted online, publication topics included history of school funding in Pennsylvania and facts on child welfare and introduction of PPC's Porch Light Project that seeks a "forever family for every child."

- Position papers on the topics of child welfare, early care and education, education, health care and youth development created and shared with candidates for state and federal office. Position papers then housed on PPC web site.
- Two new Porch Light Reports created – "A Forever Family for Every Child" and "Promoting Permanence." Approximately 2,000 copies were distributed and a PDF file was posted on the PPC web site.
- Monthly update – Capitol Watch for Children - on progress in children's policymaking, distributed via email to approximately 6,000 people and then posted online.
- Gave public presentations on key children's issues, including appearances in such high-level venues as legislative hearings including Senate Education Committee, state board of education hearing and conferences.
- 2008 PPC annual report prepared for information sharing purposes and housed online.
